Housing and Management

More than 20 years of professional barrier facility management and operation and maintenance experience.

With more than 20 years of professional barrier facility management and operation and maintenance experience, Shanghai Model Organisms can provide professional animal house management service for research users and biopharmaceutical company users, eliminating your manpower and time in daily feeding and management of mice and maintaining animal house operation, and easily enjoying the convenience and peace of mind brought by professional services.

We have strictly trained and professional animal room work and management staff, professional veterinary,quality control team and system maintenance team, as well as a complete and strict quality management system to ensure the normal operation of the animal room in strict accordance with the requirements of the national standard, providing comfortable and scientific feeding environment for the animal in the room.

Email: info@medelorg.com